

WEEKLY SNAPSHOT

Final panels have now been installed to exterior of administration building

EATS awning progress – structure complete and sheeting underway

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

The final glass panels have now been installed on the exterior of the administration building and installation of the stone façade is well underway.

- Level 1: tiling floors, painting ceilings and installation of internal glass windows and doors
- Level 2: Installation of services
- Level 3: carp tiles laid, installation of joinery, painting
- Level 4: Painting of ceilings, prep floor for tiling
- Level 5: Painting and ceiling plastering
- Level 6: Sanding and first coat of paint to walls
- Level 7: Installation of curtain wall pelmets and sills
- Level 8: Installation of balcony glass, internal wall sheeting

EATS BUILDING

Sheeting of the new EATS awning is underway.
Bottle Alley is expected to reopen to pedestrian traffic on Monday 9 November.

REMINDERS

The car park pay stations have now been relocated. Pay machine 1 is located on the ground floor lift lobby, pay station 2 is located outside the lift A lobby on level B1 and pay station 3 is located inside the lift B lobby on level B5.

FAST FACT

There are currently 170 workers on site